TOWN LOTS! —AND— LAND FOR SALE —FOR— TAXES.

ON MONDAY, JANUARY 5, 1885,
(it being County Court day), I will offer for Sale, at the Court-house door, in Hopkinsville, Ky., the following Town Lots and Tracts of Land for State and County Taxes for the years of 1881, 1882, 1883, and 1884.
Such Land and Lots are not sold on January 5, 1885, will be sold in February and March, 1885. We are compelled to close our Tax business.
If not paid promptly, we have to sell property, personal and real.

Where is the man who said that the history of a hundred years proved that no man whose name begins with C could ever be elected president?

Jonathan Chase has consented to become a candidate to succeed H. B. Anthony, deceased, as United States Senator from Rhode Island.

The will of Frank Chaufron, the actor has been admitted to probate. He leaves his widow all of his property, real and personal, amounting to $245,000.

The voting population of Dakota as shown by the recent election is 84,000, which indicates a population of 420,000, an increase of 45 per cent in two years.

Mr. Geo. V. Triplett, associate editor of the Frankfort Capital, will be united in marriage to-morrow to Miss Nannie N. Beckham, daughter of the late Hon. W. N. Beckham, of Barstow, Ky.

A syndicate of young men has been formed at St. Thomas, in Pembina county, Dak., where there is a great dearth of young ladies, which will send a deputation to Boston to secure wives for the rest of the members.

There will be only 14 Republicans in the 49th Congress from the Southern States, distributed as follows: Kentucky, 1; Louisiana, 1; Maryland, 1; Missouri, 2; North Carolina, 1; South Carolina, 1; Tennessee, 3; Virginia, 2; West Virginia, 2.

The Times-Democrat warns all persons visiting the New Orleans Exposition, which opens next month, to beware of pickpockets, as the crowd will be the largest ever seen in this country.

Mr. W. E. Bourland, of Madisonville has bought the State Sentinel office and will begin the publication of The Free Lance, at Henderson, next Friday, with Tom L. Cannon as editor. It will be independent in politics.

The Electoral College of Kentucky will meet at Frankfort to-morrow week, (Dec. 3) to vote for President and Vice-President. Every elector must be present. A messenger will be chosen to deliver the vote in Washington.

It is surprising how many Democrats are to be found nowadays. Fellows who have voted scratched tickets as a rule and have always been regarded as politically "nothing and damned little of that," are now posing as influential Democrats, in the vain hope of being struck by official lightning.

This doesn't seem to be a good year for the Logans. Young Black Jack has been fired out of West Point and the old warrior has been beaten for the Vice-Presidency and the Illinois Senatorship at one and the same time.

Both Democrats and Republicans of Ohio are uniting in an effort to have the fall elections changed from October to November. West Virginia has already adopted an amendment to the same effect.

The cholera in Italy has about disappeared. Complete official reports up to the 20th inst. in the province of Naples alone were 14,037 cases and 7,576 deaths, of which 12,502 cases and 6,729 deaths were in the city of Naples. The disease is still raging in other parts of Europe.

Mrs. Victoria Morisini-Schelling, the New York heiress who eloped with her father's coachman last summer, made her debut as a public singer Saturday evening, in New York city. Every seat in Steinway Hall was occupied and she was loudly applauded upon each re-appearance on the stage.

Rev. Mr. Burchard, who helped to defeat Blaine, has two sons who voted for Cleveland. Since learning this, some of the Republicans are charging that his now famous alliterative sentence, "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion" was designedly uttered with the intention of injuring the Doomed Knight.

The editor of the Frankfort Capital takes the water-works company out behind the house and talks to it like a Dutch uncle. He wants water or wants his money refunded that was paid in advance. It is something so unusual for an editor to want water and want it as bad as the editor of the Capital seems to, that the prohibition party ought to send their man St. John to look into his case and see that he gets what his soul yearns for.

The Owensboro Messenger in an able editorial calls upon the merchants of the South to boycott Cincinnati on account of the infamous slanders that are being published about the South by that vilest of bloody shirt organs, the Commercial Gazette. If the businessmen of Cincinnati do not endorse these infamous and malevolent lies they owe it to themselves to hold a public meeting and so express themselves. St. Louis, Louisville, Evansville and other wholesale markets are just as accessible to the South, and Cincinnati should bear in mind that Southern people are not of the kind to lick the hand that is raised against them.

INTO THEIR HOLES.

The Vote of New York has passed through the last hands.

CLEVELAND'S MAJORITY RANGES FROM 1,149 TO 1,077 ON THE ELECTORAL TICKET.

What Cleveland will do as President.

OFFICIAL COUNT BY STATE OFFICERS.

ALBANY, Nov. 21.—The state canvassers met at noon and all were present, Secretary Wood announced the following table as follows: Highest Democratic Elector, Priest, 563,151; highest Republican Elector, 562,005; plurality, 1,149. Lowest Democratic Elector, Ottendorfer, 563,048; lowest Republican Elector, Harris, 561,971; plurality, 1,077. Highest Prohibition Elector, Miller, 25,006; lowest, Ellsworth, 24,048. Highest Butler Elector, O'Donnell, 17,004; lowest, Campbell, 16,751. After the announcement the members of the board signed the tables and certificates.

THE KIND OF A HAIR-PIN GROVER IS.

The Albany Argus has an elaborate article on the kind of President Grover Cleveland will make. It scouts the prophecy of the Republican press that he will "be run over by a horde of demanding and insatiable cormorants." On this point it says: "We can assure the wise forecasters they can win money by betting that just what kind of a man Grover Cleveland has been as Governor that kind of a man he will be as President. He has not been 'run over by cormorants' as Governor very much. As President, he will doubtless find more 'cormorants,' but that will only require him to be more Cleveland, and the amount of Clevelandism in him will be found equal to any emergency. It took the politicians about two months to discover that as Governor he was a resolute, clear-sighted man, who, to the disgust of the 'cormorants,' really meant what he said, and was resolved plainly, and truthfully, to do what he promised the people—that he had no fears, no reservations and no concern about the consequences of doing right. In not longer than twice two months at most, the same discovery will be made of him as President, and whether the politicians and he get along well or not, he and the plain people will have no more difficulty in getting along well, with one another, than Abraham Lincoln and the plain people of his day had."

REASSURING WORDS FOR THE DARKIES.

Gov. Cleveland was asked by a United Press representative one day last week if he was aware of a delusion existing among the colored people of the South that a change in the Administration would unfavorably affect their condition, to which he replied:

"Yes. I have been astonished at the statement that there was an apprehension existing among the colored people that in some way their rights, now secured to them under the laws and Constitution of the United States, were in danger from the election of a Democratic President. I am even told that some of them are led to suppose that the result of the recent election means that they may again be made slaves."

"All of this has appeared to me to be so absurd, and I have been so sure that the slightest intelligent reflection would dislodge such foolish fears that I can hardly deem any notice of them necessary, but there is not the slightest objection to calling the attention of all who are in the least uneasy or uncertain upon this subject to the fact that the title of the colored people to freedom and all the rights of citizenship can not be disturbed, except by a change in the Constitution, which it would be absolutely impossible to make."

Besides the present condition or status of these people has been so fully accepted by the entire country that no one should have the slightest idea that any attempt will be made to change it if there was any possibility of accomplishing such a thing. So far as the new administration is related to this subject, the whole country can be sure that the lawful power and jurisdiction of the executive will be so exercised that the rights of all citizens, white or black, under the constitution and law, will be preserved and protected, and all the advantages to which they are entitled by reason of their citizenship will be secured to them. There need be no fear that either the Democratic party or its newly elected administration proposes to oppress or enslave any part of our population nor to destroy the business interests of the country. We hope, on the other hand, to do something to benefit the people. It seems to me that our efforts in that direction would be aided if mischievous croaking and dark imaginings should give place to an earnest endeavor to inspire confidence and to make universal a cheerful hope for the future."

It was a total eclipse of the New York Sun on the 4th inst.—Breckenridge News.

Official Returns From Other States.

Virginia's official vote: Cleveland, 146,189; Blaine, 138,474; Cleveland's majority 7,715.

Iowa's complete vote: Blaine, 197,089; Fusion, 177,286; Republican plurality, 19,803.

California's total vote: Blaine, 100,816; Cleveland, 88,307; St. John, 2,640; Butler, 1,975; Blaine's plurality, 12,509.

North Carolina's official vote: Cleveland, 142,205; Blaine, 125,068; St. John 448. Cleveland's plurality 17,137.

Georgia's official count: Cleveland, 94,557; Blaine, 47,964; Butler, 125; St. John, 184. Cleveland over Blaine, 35,593.

Maryland's official vote: Cleveland, 93,932; Blaine, 85,699; St. John, 2,794; Butler 531. Cleveland's plurality, 11,233.

Pennsylvania's vote: Blaine, 471,004; Cleveland, 393,510; Butler, 16,692; St. John, 14,306; Lockwood, 3. Blaine's plurality, 77,494.

Michigan's vote: Blaine, 192,354; Fusion ticket, 189,403. Blaine's plurality, 2,946. The plurality for Alger, Rep., for Governor is 3,812.

Illinois' official vote: Blaine, 340,494; Cleveland, 312,318; Blaine's plurality 28,176. Oglesby, Rep., beats Harrison, Dem., for Governor by 13,632.

Cleveland's official majority in West Virginia is 4,203, a falling off of 702 from the Democratic majority in October. The majority of Goff, the only Republican Congressman elected, is 204.

The official count in Missouri: Cleveland, 235,972; Fusion, 202,261; St. John, 1,506; Cleveland's plurality, 33,711. Marmaduke, Dem., for Governor received 11,122 plurality and 573 majority.

Connecticut's official vote: Cleveland, 75,199; Blaine, 66,923; St. John, 2,305; Butler, 1,688; scattering 6. Cleveland's plurality, 1,276. Waller, Dem., for Governor received a plurality of 1,645 but as he failed to receive a majority of all the votes cast, the election will be thrown into the Legislature and Harrison, his Republican opponent will be elected.

No Long Words.

There is no call to use long words in speaking of Parker's Tonic. It sells on its merits and cures by its virtues. No family can make a mistake in keeping a bottle in the house. For coughs, colds and all troubles of the bowels, stomach, liver and kidneys, it is exactly what you want. For yourself, your wife and children.

Many peculiar bets are coming to light since the election. Some of them are funny, some are queer while others are humiliating. At Frankfort, to-day, Sig Luscher will, as the result of a wager on the election, be conveyed through the streets in a wheelbarrow by Jas. Sower. They are a good deal of fun will be had at the expense of the loser. Several brass bands will be on hand and a long procession will follow the wheelbarrow.

At Lexington, next Thursday, Mr. W. H. Boswell will take a bucket of paint and a brush and publicly paint Chas. Foushee a deep red from head to feet. A stand will be put up on the public square and the program will be carried out to the letter.

In Chicago a prominent Republican had to saw a cord of wood on the street, in payment of a bet. In some other place we noticed that a Republican had undertaken to carry out a contract to black the boots of a Democratic friend twice a week for one month.

In an Ohio town a Republican had to carry a Democrat through the streets on his shoulders and was to pay a heavy forfeit if he let him fall.

A young couple in Iowa have a dead sure thing in the way of a bet. They agreed that if Blaine was elected the young man would marry the girl and if Cleveland was elected she would marry him.

At Bowling Green, Jim Newton burned Jeff Dodd's hat in payment of a wager, on the vote in New York.

Since it has become absolutely certain that the next administration will be Democratic, it seems that almost the entire Democratic population of the country has been seized with an insane desire for office. Petitions are being circulated, "prominent politicians" are being besieged with applications for "influence" and the mails are being loaded with letters asking for official favors. The great rule of the hour is to become an office-seeker, but we want the public to understand that there is at least one honorable exception to the rule.

We want no office, expect none and are sure not to be disappointed when the places are filled. We have undertaken to make the South KENTUCKIAN the best and most reliable newspaper in Southern Kentucky and to this end all of our energies shall be directed. We know of no better way to close this paragraph than by remarking that now is the time to subscribe—price $2.00 per annum.

The Governor of Rhode Island has appointed Wm. S. Sheffield to the Senate, to succeed Senator Anthony until the Legislature, which meets in January, can elect a Senator for the unexpired term.

The Danville Tribune calls upon Republicans to fall in for 1888. If you expect them to "fall in" any more than they are now you will have to find a deeper "slough of Despond."

At Montgomery Bell Academy, Nashville, a boy named Robt. Eddington, dropped dead of heart disease last Friday, while declaiming "Hohenlinden."

Miss Mamie Lou Hughes, of Morganfield, Ky., is visiting the family of Mr. John Feland.

Mrs. Sue Smith, of Clarksville, Tenn., returned home yesterday, after a visit of several days to her relative, Mr. W. A. Wilgus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Twyman and Mrs. R. H. Lovier will leave today for Lake City, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Miss Mollie Layne, of Todd county came down last Saturday to spend several weeks in the city. She is the guest of Mr. Polk Cansler's family.

Messrs. D. Farris and J. C. Wells, of Troy, Tenn., the latter a promising young lawyer, were the guests of Mr. D. M. Whittaker, of Casky, last week.

Hon. A. H. Clark, U. S. Revenue Agent, was in the city last week and left this week for New Orleans, where he will be located for the next three months.

Capt. W. M. Green, conductor on the Nashville accommodation, left yesterday for Lake City Fla., whither he takes his wife to spend a month for the benefit of her health.

Miss Goodie Lowry, who attended school at Bethel Female College, in this city, a few years ago, will be married at San Antonio, Tex., to-day to Mr. J. T. Haffle. She has many friends and admirers here who will wish her much happiness.

DIED.
WHITE: At her home in this city Friday, Nov. 21st, after an illness of six days, Miss Pattie White.

The deceased was a most estimable lady. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and her life was that of a pious and exemplary christian. She leaves one sister in this city, Mrs. T. B. Burbridge. All her other relatives reside in Virginia. Her funeral was preached Saturday afternoon, by Rev. E. W. Bottomly, in the absence of her pastor.

Mrs. E. H. Barnett, an old and highly esteemed lady, died on the 12th inst. at the residence of Mr. D. M. Whittaker, near Casky. She died from the effect of a burn received some time before. She was in the 81st year of her age.

Romeo and Juliet.

John J. Henry, business manager for Miss Lilian Olcott, is in the city making arrangements for the appearance of this popular young American star at the Opera House on Saturday evening, Nov. 29th. Miss Olcott will appear as Juliet, and Mr. W. F. Burroughs as Romeo. Of the above the Norfolk Landmark says:

Miss Olcott with a powerful and well-selected company, under the management of Mr. R. L. Taylure, made her first appearance to an unusually large and enthusiastic audience at the Academy of Music last night in Shakespeare's great tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet." Miss Olcott is young and may be called beautiful, her face expressive of the tenderest feelings, her eyes bright and her smiles charming; youth, loveliness, appreciation, earnestness, intelligence, ambition—these are qualities of which Miss Olcott seems to be possessed. The company throughout is an excellent one, including Mr. Burroughs as Romeo and S. K. Chester as Mercutio. The wardrobes were superb, Miss Olcott's costume being strikingly elaborate and beautiful.

GRANGE LECTURES.

Editor SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:
Allow me to announce through your valued paper, that Hon. T. A. Thompson, Past Lecturer of the National Grange, will deliver public addresses to the grangers and farmers of Christian and Todd Co's as follows: Friday Dec. 6th at Casky; Saturday Dec. 6th at Trenton and at Church Hill during the meeting of the State Grange, which will hold its next annual meeting at the Hall of Church Hill Grange, commencing Tuesday Dec. 9th. Everybody is invited to the public addresses. Private lectures will be given to the members of the order at an hour to suit their convenience.

Cansler's Stock Sale.

Polk Cansler sold at his semi-monthly sale last Saturday.
One medium mule, $50.00
" spring-wagon and harness, 75.00
" buggy and harness, 75.00
" road cart, 15.00
" shot-gun, 8.00
There were several horses and mules and one milch cow offered but no other sales made. There being no demand for work stock and feeding time on hand caused this market to be very dull at this time. Next sale Saturday, Dec. 13th.
POLK CANSLER, Manager,
Jno. C. DAY, Auctioneer.

HERE AND THERE.

Howe's time is the city standard. Mr. C. W. Kae, who fell from a house last week, is able to be on the streets again.

Mr. Frank B. Richardson has been elected Police Judge of the town of Pembroke.

"Father time," Kelly's big town clock keeps both the Standard and Sun time.

Fresh Oysters, Celery and choice Mince Meat, for Thanksgiving, at Holland & Rodgers'.

Tom Lander, col., was arrested at Bellevue a few days ago, charged with stealing a hog and is in jail.

Mr. J. M. Tandy has rented the European Hotel property and will run the house another year.

"Allegree" is the name of a new postoffice established in Todd county, between Elkton and Kirkmansville.

The dancing club will give a hop at the Rink next Thursday evening and a pleasant time is promised all who may attend.

The Kentucky State Grange will hold its next annual meeting with the Church Hill Grange in this county, on the 9th of next month.

The Assignee of Mr. E. A. Pike, disposed of a lot of furniture and other personal property at auction Saturday at the European Hotel.

The first blizzard of the season struck this latitude Sunday and there was a general freeze Sunday night. Ice was a quarter of an inch thick Monday morning.

Thanksgiving Day will be strictly observed in the city next Thursday. Not only the banks and public offices but all of the business houses will be closed all day.

Our first page is taken up this issue with some news that may be of great interest to some of our readers. At any rate we would advise all to peruse it.

Hog-killing will be the order of the day this week. Many farmers killed yesterday and others will do so to-day. Corn is scarce and the farmers have been growing impatient for a cold spell.

The rain Saturday night was the first for several weeks and was badly needed. There was not enough of it to put much water into the empty cisterns.

Rev. H. H. Allen, of Princeton, Ky., preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening. He is still in the city the guest of Judge J. I. Lander.

The nights are getting longer now and the farmers have more time to read newspapers. The SOUTH KENTUCKIAN will keep you posted twice a week for $2.00.

If your paper stops coming suddenly, stop and ask yourself if your time is out before you begin to use strong language. Remember we stop all papers when out.

We hope our correspondents will begin to send us the news again at regular intervals. We want the news during the winter months from every section of the county.

A young man named Wm. Donaldson, son of J. T. Donaldson, the painter, accidentally shot himself in the fleshy part of the leg while handling a pistol yesterday. The wound is not serious.

As usual the various churches of the city will hold the customary union services on Thanksgiving Day. By regular rotation the services will be held in the Christian Church and the Thanksgiving sermon will be preached by the pastor, Eld. Stanley.

The Todd county Progress will be started at Elkton Dec. 11th with Judge J. S. Bidley as editor and proprietor. It will be remembered that the Register suspended some time ago, and Todd county is now without an organ. The Progress will be a first-class paper and will supply a "long-felt want" in Elkton.

The Guthrie and Elkton railroad in Todd county is rapidly nearing completion. The grading will be finished to Elkton this week with favorable weather and it will take about ten days more to lay the track. It is expected that the cars will be running to Elkton before Christmas.

Next Wednesday week (Dec. 3d.) is the opening sales of the Hopkinsville Tobacco Market. It is expected that a line of tobaccos far better than usual will be offered, provided the weather is suitable for handling between now and that time. A full board of buyers is expected as several orders not filled on this market last season will be represented.

Fire on Bridge Street.

A fire broke out in the old Elb house on Bridge street yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. It burned very slowly and the bucket brigades were able to keep the adjacent buildings from catching until the engine got to work at the cistern in front of Howe's store, when the fire was extinguished in time to save the lower part of the building, most of which was brick. The building was occupied by Julius Oncles, butcher, and Jno. Diuguid, col., saloon keeper. Both of these tenants saved everything of value. The losses fall on Mr. Moses Elb and Mr. John Moayon. The former had a lot of furniture stored up-stairs, some of which was lost. Mr. Moayon's loss of $400 or $500 on the building was covered by a $1,000 policy with Callis & Hays. The origin of the fire is a mystery. It was first seen on the roof. No one lived up-stairs and the old cause "a defective flue" is assigned.

What It Does.

Almost every lady habitually uses some kind of hair dressing. It is a toilet necessity. Parker's Hair Balm is the best, because it gives gloss and softness; arrests falling out; does not soil the most delicate fabric; is deliciously perfumed; cools the head; eradicates dandruff, and promotes a luxuriant growth.

CASKY.

The long-looked-for, much-talked of wedding is soon to take place. Miss Lou Yancy, of Fairview, was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Whitlow, last Sunday.

Miss Sue West, from Church Hill is visiting Mrs. R. P. Carneal, this week.

The new dwelling Mr. Geo. B. Bowles is erecting on his home place will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mrs. L. D. Watson is spending several weeks at Dawson Springs, for the benefit of her health.

Walter and Robt. Williams from Todd county, are visiting friends in this county.

Corn is both scarce and costly in this locality this season and many farmers are buying at $2.50 per bbl.

Hog cholera is raging in localities not very remote from this, and many are killing their hogs fearing the appearance of the malady here.

Miss Nettie Majors, a charming and petite belle from Henderson, is spending several weeks with friends here.

Brothers Cardwell, Reynolds and Sayer were among the commercial missionaries visiting here last week.

Mrs. Chas. Byles, from Washington Territory, is visiting the family of Mr. D. M. Whittaker.

Mrs. S. W. Tallaferro, from Guthrie, visited her old home at "Higgle," Friday last.

The Republican boys are now learning what defeat means in the fullest sense of the word. "It is a long lane that has no turn."

During the excitement attendant upon the organization of the line of march to the ratification meeting, some vandal stole a large demijohn filled with oil from the club. The loss cast a deep gloom over the subsequent proceedings.

There is no use talking, there is a veritable ghost out here. It has been seen by several parties lately and the fact can no longer be denied. Some say it is the "dead and gone spirit of the G. O. P.," others say it is a "haunt," whatever that means.

Tom Penick sent Chris. Harrison the skin of a young rattle-snake from Texas. It measured eight feet eleven inches, actual count.

ICONOCLAST.

Malarial Poison.

Having spent much time for the past three years in and near Albany, Ga., I had gradually absorbed malaria into my system, and my general health was completely broken down; this poison culminated last November in a congestive chill, and I was confined to the bed and house for five months; was treated by the best physicians, by all the approved methods with no benefit. My health was awfully broken down; my skin almost as yellow as a pumpkin; a thick heavy coat on my tongue; no appetite; and in a miserable fix generally. I was induced in April last to take Swift's Specific, and the first few doses convinced me that it was what I needed. I continued until I had taken several bottles, and am a well man, the poison has all been driven out of my system by Swift's Specific, and I have gained thirty pounds in weight.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Issued by the Governor of Kentucky.

I, J. Proctor Knott, Governor of Kentucky, do hereby recommend that the good people of this Commonwealth shall, with one accord set apart and observe Thursday, Nov. 27, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God for the manifold blessings he has vouchsafed to us during the past year, and that while the incense of gratitude and praise shall ascend from the hearthstone and alter to the Great Giver of all good for His exceeding great mercy to us, we should remember the afflicted with brotherly kindness, and gladden the hearts of the poor by the gentle office of charity.

In testimony whereof I herewith sign my name and cause the great seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at the Capitol at Frankfort, the 19th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-third. J. PROCTOR KNOTT.
By the Governor:
J. A. MCKENZIE, Secretary of State

EXCHANGE SCINTILLATIONS.

Miss Amy Belmont, of Burlington, Ia., weighs 316 pounds. Here's bad case of bigamy.—Louisville Times.

If it was really necessary to have a female candidate for President of the United States, we can not help thinking that Maud S. would have made a better run than the Hon. Delva Lockwood.—Buffalo Express.

It is rumored that President Arthur is considering the acceptance of the Presidency of Union College, which has been tendered him. He could give the students proper ideas as to the correct thing in pantaloons, which seems to be knowledge enough for the average young men of the period.—Louisville Times.

Two sons and a daughter in a Daviess county family married on the same day last week. This reminds us of a little story. Three bright young girls, sisters, were all to marry on the same day. A gentleman, who mingled the language on all occasions, meeting one of them, said: "Ah, Miss Mary, I understand there are to be triplets at your house." "Lord, Mr. P., I hope it won't be me," was the amused reply of the ready-witted girl.—Louisville Times.

SPECIAL LOCALS.

To The Tax-Payers' of Christian County.

My term as Sheriff of Christian County ends with this year. I must and will close out my business. Many of you are owing me taxes. These must be paid right away. This means everybody. Do not say, "it does not mean me, I am good for my taxes." No man is as good as his money. I have employed a number of deputies, and on the 1st Monday in November, I shall start them out with orders to levy and sell and wind up this unholy business. I shall advertise all land and town lots for sale on the 1st Monday in December. Come in and pay and save costs. I mean what I say. I must wind out. I have neither home nor money, and cannot lay around this town for long years waiting to collect little amounts of tax. I give you fair warning. From rich and poor I must have this money.

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is an unfailing specific for all complaints arising from a derangement of the functions of the Liver. It purifies the blood and infuses new life into the invalid. Pains in the side, general uneasiness, loss of appetite, headache, bilious attacks, &c., &c., are sure indications that a corrective is needed. PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is especially adapted for these complaints. It arouses a torpid liver to action and restores it to a healthy condition. nov4 1m
